request conciliation, unless Builder in writing waives the conciliation procedure. Buyer will submit $50.00 for administrative costs, along with complaint forms. Registered Builder/Remodeler will be billed $200.00 when a team is assigned for conciliation. If, by agreement of Builder and Buyer, any part of the purchase price (including approved change orders) is withheld during construction or at closing, such amount must first be placed in the Association's escrow account or in a mutually agreeable third party escrow account whose fee shall be paid by said Buyer before the conciliation meeting will be held. If a conciliation agreement is not signed by the Builder and Buyer, Association may refund the escrowed funds. Following completion by Builder of the remedial steps contained in any Conciliation Agreement signed by the Buyer and Builder within the time periods indicated, if any, Association may distribute funds held in escrow to Builder; provided, however, if in the sole opinion of Association, Builder has not performed the remedial steps set forth in the Conciliation Agreement as intended by Buyer, Builder and the Conciliators, Association may refund escrowed funds to Buyer. In the event a party fails to proceed with arbitration, unsuccessfully challenges the arbitrator's award or fails to comply with the arbitrator's award, the other party is entitled to recover its costs, including a reasonable attorney fee, for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, Buyer shall give Builder an adequate opportunity to repair, replace or pay for any defective construction.
